What is your favorite part about working at PSC?

I really love the sense of family and the fact that everyone is always willing to pitch in and do whatever is needed.

Is there anything you collect?

Recipes and cookbooks

What app do you use the most?

Instagram and Pinterest. I love looking up recipes and hairstyles.

What is the most rewarding part of your job?

The feeling that I've helped someone and hopefully gave them a reason to smile.

If you could time travel to a particular period in time, what would it be?

Either the 1950s or the 1980s. The music in both decades was wonderful.

What is your favorite season?

Fall or Winter. I love the beautiful colors and crisp Fall air. I also love the beauty of freshly fallen snow (preferably on a Saturday or Sunday).

What is your favorite TV show(s)?

Almost anything on The Food Network, The Amazing Race, Blue Bloods.

How do you define success?

Knowing that I've been kind, worked hard, and hopefully made someone's day a little bit brighter. (and that my daughters grew into kind, caring and empathetic adults)

What is your favorite hobby/activity to do in your free time?

Baking! This year my focus has been on learning bread recipes with my favorite being english muffins. I also enjoy reading or listening to audiobooks.

If you could meet anyone, dead or alive, who would you meet?

Any of my Great grandmothers.

What are three traits that define you?

I'm nurturing, compassionate and loyal.

What are your favorite bands/musicians?

I enjoy most genres of music. It depends on the situation or the mood I'm in. Frank Sinatra or Dean Martin for dinner music, AC/DC (or something like it) for workout music, and anything fun for car rides.

What is one of your favorite quotes?

"Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened." - Dr. Seuss.

Do/did you play any sports?

Nope, but I love watching football --
Go Steelers!

What is your favorite food?

Pasta or chicken. Both are versatile and can be seasoned to match any flavor you're in the mood for. I also can't resist a really good chocolate chip cookie.
